

LOOKING AHEAD

Southeastern Workers Conference.....February 22-24
Women to Women—Titus 2 Women—Afternoon Tea.....March 3

THE SAKEJI MISSION SCHOOL

The Sakeji Mission school in Zambia is in need of some bed spreads as described below:

Girls Dorm

There are 12 to 15 single beds in each room. Two rooms are pink in wall color, so something to match that. The other two are turquoise in paint color, so anything that would go with turquoise.

Boys Dorm

There is also the boys dorm with a similar set up. They would require basically boyish or neutral colors.

If you want to make a bedspread, the bedspreads are 50" by 80". Ollie's and Burlington Coats have reasonably priced bedspreads to purchase. For more information please contact Pat Cardillo, Margaret Lewis or Linda Pfaff.

Wednesday, February 14 will be the last day to bring in the bedspreads.

CHAPEL SECURITY

The elders and deacons are continuing to consider additional ideas for security at the chapel. Several months ago, we began locking the entry doors soon after the meetings begin. There are also assigned doorkeepers who observe the entry doors throughout the meetings. Please pray with us regarding the implementation of other wise and reasonable security measures.

INCLEMENT WEATHER NOTIFICATION

In the event of inclement weather, watch WFMY News 2 for scheduling changes in chapel activities. You can also go to shannonhills-biblechapel.org and go to the Links section of the Shannon Hills Bible Chapel website. Click on inclement weather information to get the latest updates.

LADIES MINISTRY

Ladies interested in serving in a chapel ministry such as: the social, bereavement, nursery, or hospitality areas, fill out a sign up sheet on the table in the vestibule, and leave it on the table or give it to Pat Cardillo.

VAN MINISTRY

Two to three volunteers are needed to help drive for the van ministry. If you are able to help please see Rob White.

SOUTHEASTERN WORKERS CONFERENCE

- SHBC is hosting the Southeastern Workers Conference February 22-24. The conference begins at 7:00pm Thursday and concludes at 12:00 noon on Saturday. The theme is "Lord, Teach Us To Pray", and everyone is invited to attend as many sessions as possible. If you plan to attend daytime sessions, please register at www.sewc.info. Additional information is also available on the website. Host homes are needed for those who request housing--if you can assist with this, contact Matt Bowman. We will be providing lunch and supper at the Activities Building on Friday, as well as continental breakfasts and refreshments throughout the conference. The Ladies Committee could use additional help as well. Contact Carol Stewart if you are interested. If you have other questions, contact Mark Shelley.
- Volunteers needed for the following: providing baked goods or assisting in serving during meals or refreshment breaks at the Southeastern Workers Conference. Sign-up sheets located on the table in the hallway.
- Help is needed in setting up tables and chairs for the Southeastern Workers Conference. Matt Bowman will coordinate the set-up at 7:00pm on Tuesday, February 20th.

WOMEN TO WOMEN—TITUS 2 WOMEN

AFTERNOON TEA!

Date: March 3, 2018

Time: 2:00-4:00 pm

This formal tea will require table hostesses who will provide tea settings as well as women who will provide finger foods, scones, and other delicacies. Please contact Holly Barefoot or Margaret Lewis as to your interest in participating in this event or for additional information.
